25X1X

- 1. Twelve Soviet officers arrived in REICHENAU (BOGATYNIA) (0 51/G 08) in early October 1949. They were billeted in a house of the Krakow Settlement and avoided any contact with the civilian population.
- 2. The officers, carrying briefcases and cameras, were daily observed in the border area, where they drew sketches. It was rumored that they had come directly from the Soviet Union.
- 5. Officers' groups of about the same number were said to also stay in the neighboring town in REICHENAU.

25X1A

The officers may have surveyed the border area and made preparations for improvement of the Oder-Neisse River Line.
